WELCOMING THE ADMIRAL. Other Nations May Take Part in

Dewey's Home Coming. Park Benjamin in the Independent. The victory at Manila is now recognized as one of the greatest feats ever accomplished in naval warfare. There is no schievement of Nelson which eclipses it in brilliancy, and it excels in audacity and courage even Farragut's splendid accomplishment at Mobile. It seems fitting, therefore, that when Admiral Dewey is first greeted he should be welcomed, not merely as a citizen of the republic whom all his fellow citizens are anxious and delighted to honor, but distinctly as a naval hero, and first of all by those of his countrymen whose naval achievements are outdone only by his own. It is the custom of the Navy Department to permit a returning admiral to come back in his flagship. It is now understood that Admiral Dewey will make his home voyage in the Olympia, which bore his flag during the great battle. For him to return by way of the Pacific would be simply an ordinary sea journey, supplemented afterward by a triumphal progress across the country. But should be return by way of the Suez canal and the Mediterranean, his triumphal progress would extend around half of the world, for all the great naval powers through whose waters he might pass would vie with one another in rendering him honor. If, therefore, his countrymen desire that he should receive the greatest ovation which can be given him, their preference should be that he come to us from the east and not from the west.

suggest that the most fitting and graceful welcome which can be given him, and one which he himself would appreciate more than any other, would be to send the entire North Atlantic squadron to meet the Olym-pia at Gibraltar, and then under his command, as it, of course, would at once be-come, to steam back with him across the Atlantic. Such a great maratime triumph as that the world has never seen. There are enough of our finest war vessels now upon the Atlantic coast to make the fleet imposing one, and worthy of the dignity

Moreover, it probably would not be necessary for the American ambassador even to intimate to England that if she should see fit to supplement our welcoming fleet as one of the highest international courtesies. England has already done this twice for an American admiral. She sent her great channel squadron to escort Admiral Farragut out of Lisbon in 1867, and prob-ably no more splendid naval sight was ever witnessed than the passing of her iron-clads under full sail before the American flagship, with their bands playing our na-tional anthem, their crews cheering in the tional anthem, their crews cheering in the rigging and their guns thundering out the admiral's salute. She did it again at Malta, when her Mediterranean squadron, in the midst of a living gale, escorted the Franklin to sea. And that was directly after the close of the civil war, when we had many a serious question with Great Britain still unadjusted. If she could render to our admirals such honors then, what might she do now when the feeling of emity and kin lo now when the feeling of amity and kinship between the two peoples was never stronger? Is it too much to imagine that over the war fleet following the Olympia across the ocean may float as symbols of Anglo-Saxon brotherhood and lasting peace both the stars and stripes and the red cross of St. George?

The Six New Cruisers. Secretary Long has issued the circular prepared by the board of naval bureau chiefs giving the characteristics of the six cruisers authorized by the last naval appropriation bill. These ships will be valuable acquisitions to the navy, being small, swift, unarmored craft, a little larger than the cruiser Rajeigh. The essential features are: Length on water line, 292 feet; breadth, 43 feet; trial displacement, 3,100 tons; greatest draft, 16 feet 8 inches; total coal bunker capacity, 700 tons; speed on trial, not less than 16½ knots.

Annual Feast of Linthicum Institute, With Appropriate Exercises.

Addresses Made by Members of Faculty and Several Students-

The annual feast of the students of the an observance of a custom established twenty-four years ago. There was a good attendance of students and former students and members of the Linthicum Dramatic Club. It was through the generosity of the club the celebration this year was made possible. An abundance of ice cream, strawberries and cake was served to all. After the feast addresses were in order and the members of the faculty and the students were heard from. Most of the remarks made by the students were eulogistic of the school and the faculty. The address of the evening was made by Mr. E. B. Hay, who, among other things, stated that the philanthropy of Edward Magruder Linthicum, the founder of the institute, should only be regarded as started and not completed, and that if he had his way it would never be completed, but would be improved year after year with additional endowments. A pleasing feature of the even-ing was addresses by Miss Grace Rose and Miss Clara Baker, members of the Lin-thicum Dramatic Club, each of whom re-ceived quite an ovation. From the faculty addresses were made by Mr. R. C. Balinger and Mr. Nathan Weill, the other members being unable to attend.

On behalf of the dramatic club, the ad-ress of welcome was delivered by John C Gress of welcome was delivered by John C. Gartland, the president, who made a very happy speech. The prize winners also came in for an address. Remarks were made by Otto Niemeyer, Patrick J. Ford, Peyton B. Fletcher, George T. Nixon, Thomas Freeman Mason, R. Bland Phelps, Edward C. Haneke and Mr. William T. Hedrick. SPEEDY JUSTICE FOR RAPIST. One Hour After Crime He Was Sentenced to Death.

A dispatch from Baxley, Ga., last night says: Within one hour after trial for th rape of Mrs. Vicey Edgerton the negro, Will Ables, was convicted and sentenced to be hanged. The hanging will be in Appling county on June 30, the earliest date the law allows after sentence is passed.

Many people believe the charge delivered by Judge Bennet to the grand jury saved the county the stain of a lynching. Armed men sat in the court house today waiting for the up train to arrive from Brunswick. when they intended to take the rapist off and hang him, yet when Judge Bennet's charge was delivered they wept under its influence and stood silently by as the pris-oner, whose life they demanded, was marched past to trial.

Mrs. Edgerton testified positively and re-peatedly that Ables accomplished his pur-pose after repeated struggles and threats of death, and the prisoner practically con-fessed the crime. When Mrs. Edgerton was told of the death sentence she said she was glad of it, and wished it could be a thousand times over.

OUR SERVICES FOR PEACE. President Roca Expresses the Gratitude of the Argentine Republic. The Argentine minister has received opies of the message of President Julio Roca of the Argentine Republic, presented to congress May 1 last, in which he thanks the American government and Mr. Buchanan, our minister to the Argentine Republic in aiding in the settlement of the boundary troubles between Chile and Argentina. The president's message says:

"It has been a source of special gratifica-tion that the American minister, Mr. Buchanan, has given his eminent services in a solution of the questions existing between these republics. It is not the first time that a minister of our great sister republic of the north has given decisive intervention in these same boundary questions in favor of the maintenance of international peace Both the people of Argentina and Chile, on one side and on the other of the high cor-dilleras, whose destinies have been at stake, ought never to forget this friendly and im ortant service."

The arbitration settlement referred to overcame the critical condition long existing between Argentina and Chile, which had in recent months threatened to result

A Montpeller, Vt., dispatch says: A state celebration is being arranged for the welcoming of Admiral Dewey to his old home, in this city, although the exact form which it will take has not as yet been decided upon. Gov. Smith has had a consultation with Senator Proctor as to the reception, and it is expected that a committee prominent Vermonters will be in New when the Olympia arrives, and welcome the admiral.

Regular Army Enlistments. The War Department has prepared a statement showing the number of enlistments in the regular army since the Spanish war began. At that time the army consisted of 25,000 men. The enlistments since that time have been about 75,000 men. This would make an army of 100,000, but there were a large number of enlistments made for service in the war with Spain alone, and these men have since been dis-

The Dolphin will shortly go north on a cruise along the coast. Lieut. Southerland will retain the charge of militia affairs for the present. Cuban Immigration Regulations.

Assistant Secretary Meiklejohn has promulgated immigration regulations for the Island of Cuba. These regulations are substantially the same as those now in force for the United States, except that the regulations for Cuba make no distinction between aliens arriving from Canada and Mexico and other foreign countries, as is done in regulations for this country. WAR CLOUDS IN TRANSVAAL.

London Press Seriously Discussing Armed Clash With Com Paul, LONDON, June 9.-The morning papers are beginning to talk quite seriously of the possibility of war in South Africa, Mr. Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonles, in his speech in the house of commons yesterday, announced that his reply to the petition of the Ultianders, which had been held back pending the result of the conference at Bloemfonteln, would now be presented to the Transvaal. This reply is semi-officially described as "explicit but conciliatory;" but it is believed to be in the nature of a practical ultimatum. The

"Let Mr. Kruger grant the Outlanders full citizenship, and the whole question is ended. At present he only offers a note of hand for a ridiculous sum, payable many years hence, in return for our immediate abandonment of all the legal rights we now possess for enforcing the payment of debts long overdue." The Cape Town correspondent of the Times says: "At the close of the conference Mr. Kru-

EXPLOSION OF FIREWORKS.

Nordlinger Plant at Graniteville, N. Y., Completely Wrecked. Thirty-six buildings, comprising almost the entire plant of the Nordlinger-Charlton Fireworks Company, at Graniteville, Richmond borough, New York, were blown up yesterday afternoon and the entire fireworks plant practically wiped out of ex-istence. Fires which followed the explosion lasted several hours, and the wreck was complete.

No lives were lost, and but three persons were injured, two of them seriously. The loss on the buildings will probably not amount to over $3.5(0) as most of the structures were small and cheaply constructed. The loss on material, raw and that made up into fireworks, will amount to over $30,-ENCROACHING ON BRITISH TRADE.

Fear of America and Germany Expressed at Glasgow Meeting. At a mass meeting of manufacturers, ship owners and merchants in Glasgow, Scotland, yesterday afternoon a resolution was passed expressing alarm at the serious injury to British and colonial trade arising from the continued and threatened extension of foreign competition.

Mr. Anderson of the Anchor line, said
America and Germany were taking markets where Great Britain had long been pre-eminent. He added that British sub-jects had not received just support from the government, asserted that the board of trade had assumed the character of police, and claimed the foreign office only moved when the steed was stolen.

THE ADVICES FROM MANILA. Three Vessels Captured Believed to

Be Blockade Runners. The three sailing versels and one steamer reported to have been captured by the U. S. S. gunboat Albany off the Island of Negros, Philippine Islands, are supposed by the naval officers here to be blockade runers carrying supplies of food and ammunition to the islanders, who are threatening to rise in the interior. These islanders have been powerfully influenced to revolt by Tagal emissaries, and in some cases have done so, attacking the people in seaside towns who stood for the United States. The army already has taken steps to establish a garrison on the islands, and the War Department is gratified to learn that its efforts are being ably seconded by the

The officials here are in doubt as to whether Aguinaldo, in declaring his dictatorship, is animated by a desire to rid himself of his refractory generals—Pilar and Luna—or whether he aims to consolidate in his own hands the power to make terms of peace. It is known from the results of the consolidation of peace in the power to make the terms of peace. It is known from the re-ports of President Schurman of the Americ can Philippine commission that these two generals own only faint allegiance to Aguinaldo, and their attitude toward the peace negotiations has made them ineffectual, the civilian members on the Filipino side of the joint commission being completely over-awed and dominated by the military element controlled by these generals.
